

PGX

November 30, 2020

VIA CERTIFIED MAIL

KDC Consulting LLC
120 Crown Chase Drive
Stockbridge, GA 30281

Re: Curry, et al. v. PGX, LLC, et al.,
Case No. 1:20-cv-06985 (LTS) (SLC)

Dear Sir or Madam:

PGX, LLC ("PGX") has been named as a defendant in the above referenced lawsuit commenced by your employee Mr. Kenneth Curry. Based upon the allegations set forth in the Complaint, it appears that KDC Consulting LLC ("KDC") may not have paid to Mr. Curry all of the amounts that were due to him under federal and state wage payment law. The Complaint also alleges that Mr. Curry did not receive accurate wage statements or notice of his rate of pay under New York's Wage Theft Prevention Act during the period of his employment by KDC. Pursuant to that certain agreement into which PGX and KDC entered on or around January 22, 2018 (the "Agreement"), demand is hereby made that KDC cure any and all of the defects alleged in the Complaint, and make Mr. Curry whole to the greatest extent available to him under applicable law. A copy of the Complaint is included for your reference.

Please be advised that PGX is under a deadline to file a pleading in response to Mr. Curry's allegations. If the claims that Mr. Curry has asserted in the lawsuit are not withdrawn by December 10, 2020, PGX will be forced to conclude that KDC has failed to make Mr. Curry whole, and will bring third party claims against KDC under the Agreement.

All of PGX's rights are expressly reserved. Please be guided accordingly.

Very truly yours,

PGX, LLC

PGX, LLC

Enclosure: Complaint

